Calgary is a progressive and entrepreneurial city.

Our representative in Ottawa should be too.

Hi. My name is Harvey Locke. I'm proud to be representing the Liberal Party in the upcoming by-election in Calgary Centre. I was born and raised in Calgary, attended the U of C and practiced law downtown for 14 years. I have worked with conservationists, aboriginal people, global business leaders and elected officials on nature conservation efforts in Canada and around the world.

I'm running because I believe Calgary is a diverse, entrepreneurial and dynamic city, and should be represented in Ottawa by a progressive voice. My core values are simple: Canada should be fiscally prudent, socially progressive and environmentally responsible at home and abroad. Many Calgarians I've spoken to share these beliefs, and my goal is to help our city take a leading role in promoting these values in Canada and around the world.

“We’ve known Harvey for nearly 20 years. He is passionate in his beliefs, creative in finding solutions and has a real talent for bringing people together for the common good. Harvey is an inspired choice to represent Calgary Centre in Ottawa.”

– Calgary entrepreneurs,
Nan Eskenazi and Michael Going
